How to take the bar exam. The bar examination tests legal reasoning: NONE of the four choices might be correct! Likewise, more than one answer may be correct! The examinee must choose the BEST choice of the given choices! Failing to see that fact alone costs many students their "pass": Wrong answers are less exact, less accurate, or outright wrong, as compared to the correct answer which is most accurate of given choices or the most likely argument to be accepted by the court on existing law or a good faith argument thereon. In other words, the best answer is not necessarily correct! Furthermore, the least wrong answer is still ... best! These are the actual questions asked on the bar exam which were released by the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBEX). The explanations are complete, and include vital test-taking tips for the bar exam! No copyright is claimed as to the questions: the explanations to the answers were authored by Dr. Eric Engle LL.M. (Fulbright). The NCBE released those questions and retains copyright over them. Use of these questions does not constitute an endorsement by the NCBE. YOU can pass the bar. It takes discipline, determination, and curiousity. It is not rocket science. About the Author: Dr. Eric Engle, JD, DEA (Paris II), LL.M. has published dozens of law review articles in law journals around the world and authored these answers. Excerpt: 15. What must a government official prove in order to win a defamation suit against a private citizen? She must prove that D, with actual malice, published a false story that damaged her reputation in the eyes of respectable people. Actual malice means that D published with knowledge of falsity, or reckless disregard for the truth. Note that all defamation publication must be either intentional or negligent. An innocent or non-negligent publication will not support any kind of defamation action against any kind of defendant because of first amendment free speech rights.
